Legislative Branch Updates

COVID-19 Updates

Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act Signed Into Law

On March 27, President Trump signed into law a $2.3 trillion emergency spending package, H.R. 748: Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security \(CARES\) Act, to provide critical support to businesses, hospitals, households, and state and local governments, among others, during the COVID-19 pandemic. The House passed the package by voice vote on March 27 after the Senate passed the package with bipartisan support (96-0) on March 25. HR 748 includes several provisions, such as:

- U.S. residents whose adjusted gross income is less than $75,000 annually ($150,000 for a married couple), who are not dependents, and have a social security number are eligible for a $1,200 cash payment ($2,400 for a married couple). Individuals are also eligible for an additional cash payment of $500 per child.
- The bill establishes a temporary Pandemic Unemployment Assistance program that will run through December 31, 2020, providing payments to individuals who typically are not eligible for unemployment benefits (e.g., self-employed workers). Notably, the bill provides an additional $600 per week to individuals who receive unemployment insurance for a maximum of four months.
- The bill increases funding for the Paycheck Protection Program, which will offer loans to small businesses to use towards payroll and operating expenses. Small businesses can apply for a loan by June 30, 2020 and may qualify for loan forgiveness by following certain criteria.
- The bill expands the Medicare accelerated payment program, providing reliable financial support to hospitals, and increases the Medicare Add-on for inpatient hospital COVID-19 patients by 20 percent, which will remain available through the COVID-19 emergency period.
- The bill also provides additional funds for Child Nutrition Programs and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, ensuring additional funds remain available until September 30, 2021 to respond to COVID-19 domestically or internationally.

H.R. 748 marks the third COVID-19 package signed into law and is the largest economic relief package in recent U.S. history. Read more information about the CARES Act.

Families First Coronavirus Response Act Signed Into Law

On March 18, President Trump signed H.R. 6201 Families First Coronavirus Response Act into law to address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on children and families, including provisions related to nutrition and food assistance, emergency paid sick leave, unemployment insurance benefits, and COVID-19 diagnostic testing. The bill provides supplemental FY 2020 appropriations to the U.S. Department of Agriculture for nutrition and food assistance programs, including the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) and the Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP), and provides nutrition assistance grants to U.S. territories. Notably, the bill waives specific work requirements for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients and grants the Secretary of Agriculture with the authority to issue nationwide school meal waivers during the COVID-19 emergency. For example, the bill waives child nutrition program requirements, reducing administrative paperwork for states and streamlining processes for schools during COVID-19 related school closures. The bill also creates a new emergency paid sick leave program for employees who take leave because of COVID-19. Eligible employees are individuals who were employed for at least 30 days before they were affected by COVID-19 and meet certain criteria. Additionally, the bill expands access to unemployment insurance (UI) benefits by providing states with emergency grants to process and pay UI benefits, increases the federal medical assistance percentage, and establishes requirements for free COVID-19 diagnostic testing.

Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplemental Appropriations Act Signed Into Law

On March 6, President Trump signed H.R. 6074 Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2020 into law. The bill provides federal agencies with $8.3 billion in emergency funding to cope with the COVID-19 outbreak. H.R. 6074 provides FY 2020 supplemental appropriations for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, thereby supporting the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the National Institutes of Health, and the Public Health and Social Services Emergency Fund; the U.S. Department of State; the Small Business Administration; and the U.S. Agency for International Development. In short, H.R. 6074 provides additional appropriations for the development of medical countermeasures and vaccines, global health programs, and international disaster assistance, offers loans for small businesses affected by COVID-19, and reimburses evacuation and emergency preparedness expenses at State Department facilities.

U.S. Federal Funding Opportunities

The March 2020 U.S. Federal Funding Opportunities (FFO) lists over 100 funding opportunities for research, evaluation, and dissemination. Below we highlight five funding opportunity announcements (FOA) from this month's FFO:

(1) ACF: Behavioral Intervention Scholars. The Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Office of Planning, Research, and Evaluation (OPRE) is soliciting applications for Behavioral Interventions Scholars grants to support dissertation research by advanced graduate students who are using approaches grounded in behavioral science or behavioral economics to examine specific research questions of relevance to social services programs and policies. Applications are due by June 1, 2020.

(2) ED: Technical Assistance and Dissemination to Improve Services and Results for Children with Disabilities – Model Demonstration Projects to Develop Coaching Systems. The Department of Education is inviting applications for FY 2020 Model Demonstration Projects to Develop Coaching Systems. These projects will provide support to professionals to collaborate with early learning and early intervention programs, schools, districts, and State agencies to establish the infrastructure, personnel skills, and processes necessary for an effective and sustainable coaching system. Applications are due by May 4, 2020.

(3) CDC: Research Grants to Prevent Firearm-Related Violence and Injuries (R01). The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Injury Prevention and Control (NCIPC, Injury Center) is soliciting investigator-initiated research to understand and prevent firearm-related injuries, deaths, and crime. The intent of this FOA is to support research to help inform the development of innovative and promising opportunities to enhance safety and prevent firearm-related injuries, deaths, and crime, and rigorously evaluate the effectiveness of innovative and promising strategies to keep individuals, families, schools, and communities safe from firearm-related injuries, deaths, and crime. Applications are due by May 5, 2020.

(4) NIH: Firearm Injury and Mortality Prevention Research (R61 Clinical Trial Optional). The National Institutes of Health (NIH) invites applications on research to improve understanding of the determinants of firearm injury, the identification of those at risk of firearm injury (including both victims and perpetrators), the development and evaluation of innovative interventions to prevent firearm injury and mortality, and the examination of approaches to improve the implementation of existing, evidence-based interventions to prevent firearm injury and mortality. Applications are due by May 15, 2020.

(5) NIH: Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) Institutional Research Training Grant. The National Institutes of Health (NIH) will award Ruth L. Kirschstein National Research Service Award (NRSA) Institutional Research Training Grants (T32) to eligible, domestic institutions to enhance predoctoral and postdoctoral research training, including short-term research training, and help ensure that a diverse and highly trained workforce is available to meet the needs of the Nation's biomedical, behavioral, and clinical research agenda. Applications are due by May 25, 2020.
