This month, we are delighted to introduce Dr. Hyung Chol (Brandon) Yoo as our member in spotlight. Dr. Yoo is an Associate Professor of Asian Pacific American studies in the School of Social Transformation and the Sanford School of Social and Family Dynamics at Arizona State University. He is an affiliate faculty of counseling and counseling psychology and the Department of Psychology. His background in counseling psychology frames both his research and teaching interests. In particular, he is interested in examining unique racialized risk and resiliency, and their impact on the mental health of diverse marginalized communities (including Asian Americans, transracial adoptee, and multiracials).
