Publications Ethics Process

A summary of SRCD's Publications Ethics Process Recommendations, outlining formal procedures for addressing conflicts of interest, ethical violations, and legal concerns in the publication process.

This document outlines SRCD's formal process for addressing conflicts of interest, ethical violations, and potential legal liability in the publication process. Developed by the Publications Committee and approved by the Governing Council, the policy establishes a Publication Ethics Sub-Committee within SRCD's Ethics

Standing Committee to ensure transparency, fairness, and consistency across all journals. (Approved October 2025)
