Call for Applications 2018: Jacobs Foundation Research Fellowship Program

The Jacobs Foundation announced a call for applications for its 2018 Research Fellowship Program. Deadline for submission: March 18, 2018. The Jacobs Foundation Research Fellowship Program is an internationally open, competitive fellowship program for early and mid-career researchers focusing on learning and development of children and youth. Fellowships are awarded to the most highly talented and innovative early- and mid-career researchers working on child and youth development. Funds are awarded directly to the fellow's institution and may be used over a three-year period to partially cover the fellow's salary and for any activity supporting the fellow's research, such as assistant salaries, equipment, technical assistance, professional travel, or trainee support. Visit Jacobs Foundation Research Fellowship for further information and to submit an online application.
