This month, we are delighted to introduce Dr. Craig Hart (craig_hart@byu.edu) as our member in spotlight. He is a Zina Young Williams Card professor in School of Family Life at Brigham Young University and now serves as the Director of the BYU Faculty Center. Dr. Hart's scholarship focuses on linkages among family processes, parenting practices, and children's social development in cultural context. His research also encompasses developmentally appropriate practices in early childhood education. Read the full Member Spotlight.
