This month, we are delighted to introduce Dr. Chia-chen Yang as our member in spotlight. Dr. Yang is currently an Assistant Professor in the Department of Counseling, Educational Psychology and Research at University of Memphis and is transitioning to Oklahoma State University. Her research focuses on adolescents' and emerging adults' psychosocial development in the digital era. Specifically, she studies young people's use of social media and its association with their social experiences as well as identity/self development. Read the full Member Spotlight.
